PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

April promises to be a very busy and exciting month for the Friends. It will begin with our participation in the Avocado Festival on Sunday the 13th where we will co-host a booth with the Fallbrook Library. To set the proper mood for the Avocado Festival the Avocado Couch was re-located to its new home just outside the Reading Garden. (See pictures below). The Friends focus of the joint booth will be to sign up new members and renew memberships for old members. In addition we will do our best to attract last minute signups for the Community Read a few weeks later on Friday the 25th.

The Community Read will feature a San Diego author, Laurel Corona, who has written over a dozen books related to myth and history. Her most recent book, "The Mapmaker's Daughter" will be featured for the Community Read. If you have not read it yet you are strongly urged to do so as it is the gripping story of the Jewish expulsion from Spain in the 15th century as experienced by the daughter of an esteemed mapmaker, Amalia Riba.

Shortly after the Community Read we will have our Annual Meeting. The highlight of this "brown bag" lunch which will begin at noon on Wednesday the 30th of April, will be votes on the Board of Directors for the next fiscal year as well as approval of a budget for the next fiscal year. The budget is intended to help the Friends in their efforts to bolster the Library's strategy to increase circulation while at the same time providing the many programs that they have made available to the public this past year.

Sincerely,
Tom Mintun

The Avocado couch has been moved to a new location.

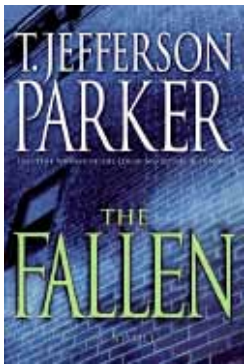

NEW DONOR NAMES

New Donor Names will be added to the Friends of the Fallbrook Library Donor Wall over the summer. The Friends are working with Artist Betsy Schulz to identify the space and number of new donor names to be added. If you have been thinking about making a donation to the Library, now may be the time to commit, to ensure your name or loved one's name is included. Donors may select from several sizes with tiles donor starting at $1500 and inscribed with the names of those to be honored or remembered.

BOOK REVIEW

The Fallen

By Parker, T.
Jefferson

The award-winning author of "California Girl" plumbs the depths of the human heart in this electrifying

new novel of suspense. "Some of the finest writing you will ever read." -- "Chicago Sun Times."

A carefully woven novel of suspense, The Fallen brings to life a superb cast of characters against the all-too-real backdrop of a city fighting for its survival. Hailed by critics as "a powerhouse writer" (New York Times) and "a thinking man's bestseller" (Washington Post), T. Jefferson Parker delivers his most elegantly written, suspenseful, and moving novel yet.

He will be appearing at the Fallbrook branch on Tuesday, September 23, 2014 at 6:00 pm. and he will also be doing an Author Visit at the Encinitas branch on October 18 for the annual Book Festival.

ENCORE FOR FALLBROOK LIBRARY'S MUSIC PROGRAM

The third Thursdays music program at the Fallbrook Library again thrilled audiences with its diverse musical entertainment. February featured the dynamic duo, 4handsLA.

The two charming performers, Steven Vanhauwaert played the upper half of the keyboard (most of the time) and with Danny Holt performing at the piano's Bass end, what aplomb these two demonstrated.

One could only stand mute at their work's tumultuous performance.

Once again the Community Room rocked again in March, when a capacity crowd joined for a delightful evening of traditional Celtic music. A native Scot, Brian Caldwell is well known for his wonderful ability to charm any crowd, while Paul Castellanos showed his virtuosity playing the Fiddle, and banjo. Their rousing and emotional performance, both instrumental and vocal, was perfect for the event, as could be seen by the reaction of the audience.

As with all library events, these concerts are free — making them doubly attractive to Fallbrook residents. The Friends are proud to support these events.

PAINTINGS OF PEOPLE, REAL AND IMAGINED

The exhibit, "Paintings of People, Real and Imagined" opened on March 16 and runs until April 25. This exhibit sponsored by the Friends brings together five widely recognized painters in oil that uses their talent to portray people. Ordinary and extraordinary people sometimes presented in portraits that allow us to imagine the person's experiences, and in other cases appearing as part of an intimate scene.

The five artists bring great technical skill and a vivid imagination to their work. Michael Steirnagle, formerly of Rainbow and Fallbrook, who now has his studio in downtown Escondido, is widely recognized to be at the top of his genre. He shows his expressive style in Palm Desert, Richmond Virginia and Scottsdale, Arizona. Renee Corwin, a native New Yorker studied at the School of Visual Arts. She now paints and teaches and judges art exhibits, and is the President of the San Diego Portrait Society. Richard Stergulz is well known to the Fallbrook art community. In addition to award winning painting he teaches and regularly gives demonstration workshops to the Fallbrook Art Association and other groups. Elizabeth Taft is a Fallbrook resident who has painted and shown her work for more than thirty years. She has won many awards here and throughout the region including from the San Diego Portrait Society. The fifth painter is Chick Curtis. He says, "Having suppressed the desire to openly commit to painting for a half century, it feels pretty euphoric to be engaged with the pigment daily now. I feel like I have finally been fully resuscitated in being the person I have always wanted to be."

The new exhibition, "Off the Wall, Sculpture on the Wall," opens May 4th.
